

Gary Goltz & Actor Jack Black End Three-Year "Feud"

Gary Goltz & Actor Jack Black End Three-Year "Feud"

Gary Goltz, of Goltz Healthcare Sales Strategies, is happy to announce that, after three years, he and actor/comedian Jack Black have settled their "feud." The conflict began in 2012, when Gary publicly corrected Jack Black's execution of a judo move on the TV show Conan, to which Black humorously rebuked Gary in a video of his own - see it all here. Fast-forward to the recent Autism Speaks "Light Up the Blues" fundraiser concert in Hollywood, which Gary and Jack Black both attended (Black emceed along with Brad Pitt). The actor insisted the two take the selfie above and apparently let bygones be bygones.
